Association of Coloproctology Nurses 2018
Monday 9 July 2018

Programme

09:30–10:00  AGM Introduction and welcome – Jay Bradbury, Oxford
10:00 -10:00 Welcome by ACPGBI President – Jim Hill, Manchester
10:05–10:30 Edward Salt lecture – GI consequences of cancer treatment – Caroline Gee, Middlesex
10:30–11:00 Mind the gap: bridging support between hospital care and community resources for cancer survivors – Gilly Howard-Jones, Southampton

11:00-11:30 COFFEE BREAK
11:30–12:00 FIT – for screening and symptoms – Bob Steele, Dundee
12:00–12:30 Implementation of FIT – Sarah Thomson, Nottingham
12:30–12:45 The CIPHER study: putting SCNs at the heart of research’ – Amanda Gunning, Exeter
12:45–13:00 Faecal incontinence – Christina Berry, Exeter

13:00–14:15 LUNCH IN THE EXHIBITION AREA
14:15–14:45 Nurse involvement in the two-week wait referral pathway: a survey of national practice – Gabrielle Thorpe, Norwich
14:45–14:55 A targeted biofeedback programme improves functional outcome following low anterior resection – Kelly Stackhouse, Birmingham
15:05–15:30 GEL update – Peter Risby, Oxford

15:30–16:00 COFFEE BREAK
16:00–16:15 Writing an abstract – Gabrielle Thorpe, Norwich
16:15–16:45 Integrated management of depression for people with cancer – Sam Glover, Alex Jones, Oxford
16:45–17:00 Close – Jay Bradbury, Oxford